We have a few openings in our 3's and 4's afternoon class left! Visit www.brookvilleCUMC.org for registration information.

Dear Families,

The end of the preschool year is just around the corner! It has been our joy to share this year with your families. The children have grown in many ways since the fall! We are honored that you entrusted us with your child's learning experiences. Many end the year activities will be happening in May. Remember to check your child's folder daily for news; announcements and permission forms.

Many thanks for your support and donations during the year. Our program is successful because of you!

May your summer be safe and exciting! God be with you!
